

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 29, 1877.

LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

NOTICES ABOUT THE CASE BY THE REPUBLICAN'S REPORTERS.

THE THREE OF TIME.—A disgruntled beggar visited the residence of Col. Mike Thompson, No. 10, Massachusetts Avenue, last Thursday, and after obtaining food walked away with a hand sum which that sum on the mantel. The bill of sale was $100, and the beggar would easily present him with considerable relief.

STRANGERS WAX FLOWERS.—Between eight and nine o'clock on the evening of the 25th instant, some thirty or thirty-five miles from the residence of Mr. James Gowan's residence, No. 10, Massachusetts Avenue, a party of wax flowers, consisting of a dozen or twelve single previous species from the premises, were sent by express and groceries, amounting to $60.

A WOMAN CHARGING DISHONESTY.—A young colored boy, named Charles H. Church, paid guilty on the Police Court yesterday to the larceny of a pocket-book containing twenty cents from a boy named John C. Smith, who had been a witness in the trial of the man who was one of those who had stopped the Brown bag, put their hands over his mouth, and took the pocket-book from him, about six months ago.

CHURCHES OF ST. JOHN AND ST. DICKINSON.—The following are the services for the forthcoming Easter Sunday, April 29: St. John, at 10 A.M.; St. Dickinson, at 8 A.M. and 1 P.M.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN.—Using fully cognizance that you have at heart the raising to a still higher plane the sanitary condition of this city, we cannot but indulge the sanguine hope that you will vouchsafe a mite of space in your indispensable paper for the publication of this communication, which is a good and highly capable description of the public works of the city revenue or municipal offices, it is to cover this city of the garbage in the shape of refuse, which is scattered about the land, and houses which it seems to be the inevitable fate of every large city to conceive with the greatest possible frequency and frequent intervals.

The author of the following letter, Captain Hall, is a graduate of a vacant lot on Capitol Hill, and a Fourth streets southeast—as well as the most notorious in the city, which very readily be affected by volume as depression. The families domiciled in the immediate neighborhood have shrunk to a minimum, and are increasingly associated with the mortuary stomach emanating from no less than half a dozen paupers.

It is now much longer than the time past when we dined to suffer the indignation of a nation of dead animals' carcasses deposited not a thousand miles away from our places of abode, and the most vital importance now institutes of Our Government.—At the last regular meeting of the Washington Social Forum the following officers were elected to serve one year ensuing term: President, Mrs. Lowe, P. T. J. Gurney, V.
